

Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

Purpose

To outline the processes for handling complaints and appeals received by Wall Street College from its students, staff and stakeholders.

All complaints and appeals are recorded, acknowledged and dealt with fairly, efficiently and effectively

Scope

This policy applies to all students, all staff members of the college including trainers and assessor and any third parties (e.g, education agents).

Definitions

College	Wall Street College
Complaint	A statement that something is unsatisfactory or unacceptable
Appeal	Make a request for a reversal/change of a decision (e.g. assessment decisions)
Training Ombudsman	Independent and impartial third-party, appointed to investigate complaints
Natural Justice and Procedural Fairness	Allowing parties subject to a decision made by the college, or anyone who has allegations against them, to tell their side of the story before a decision is made.
Student Management System	Axcelerate

Policy

The college ensures:

- The principles of natural justice and procedural fairness is adopted at every stage of the complaint and appeal process.
- All complaints and appeals must be treated fairly, professionally and transparently and without the repercussion for making such complaint or appeal.
- The complaints and appeals procedures are made publicly available such as through website.
- The process of a complaint or appeal must be commenced within 10 working days of it being received by the college.
- The complainant or appellant is given the opportunity to formally present his or her case at minimal or no cost and be assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings.
- All complaints and appeals are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable. In the event when more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, the complainant/appellant will be notified in writing of this including the rationale as to why such timeframe is required. Regular updates are provided to students on the progress of the matter.

- When an outcome has been reached, the student must be informed of the outcome (in writing) including the detailed reason/s of the outcome. When the student is not successful in the college's complaint and appeal processes, the student will be informed of their options for external appeal within 10 working days of the outcome being communicated. The contact details of an external party (independent of both the college and complainant/appellant) are provided.
- When internal or external complaint or appeal process results in a decision that favours the student, the college will immediately implement any decisions, recommendations and/or corrective action. The student will be notified of such action.
- Written records of the complaint or appeal, including the outcomes and detailed reasoning are kept securely.
- Any opportunity for improvement will be logged in Continuous Improvement Register and any appropriate corrective actions are taken to mitigate the likelihood of future occurrences.

Complaints and appeals may be made in regards with but not limited the following issues:

- Enrolment process
- Education agents
- Campus facilities and resources (including the kitchen resources)
- Training
- Staff
- Academic results
- Course progress
- Discrimination, harassment and bullying
- Fees and refunds
- Other students of the college
- Any other party directly or indirectly related to the college

Grounds for appeal may include but not limited to the following:

- Administrative inadequacies e.g. inaccuracy in recording progress
- Inadequate resources e.g. physical resources or inexperienced/unqualified staff members
- Shortcomings in the conduct of assessment e.g. alternative assessment methods were not available
- Assessment requirements specified by the assessor were unreasonably or prejudicially conducted
- Barriers to access e.g. unreasonable requirements as pre-condition to assessment
- Equal opportunity discrimination e.g. against age, gender, race, disability.
